

Scripture Declarations: Hope

"The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him. The Lord is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him." Lamentations 3:24-25

Lord, you are our portion while we wait. We praise you that you are good to us and we put our hope in YOU.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

Lord, we believe that you will prosper us in all circumstances. We declare that your plans for us are full of a hope and a future.

"We were given this hope when we were saved. If we already have something, we don't need to hope for it. But if we look forward to something we don't yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently." Romans 8:24-25

Lord, we thank you that we can wait with hope and the longer we wait, the larger we become, and the more joyful our expectancy. We call forth hope to arise in our hearts for those things we can't yet see or don't yet have.

"When everything was hopeless, Abraham believed anyway, deciding not to live not on the basis of what he saw he couldn't do but on what God said he would do." Romans 4:17-18

Lord, when everything is hopeless we continue to believe. Even though we can't see the promises you have for us, we walk by faith and put our hope in you that you will do what you said you will do. We call forth those promises that you have already declared and we believe will happen.

"I wait for the Lord, I expectantly wait, and in His word do I hope." Psalm 130:5

Lord, how amazing that you give us your word to read and study. Thank you that it comes alive. We put our hope in you and your spoken word. We wait with expectancy.

"Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life." Proverbs 13:12

Lord, thank you that when we are steadfast with our hope and we receive what we have hoped for, it is like a tree of life. We declare that our lives and our dreams will bloom and we will be full of hope and life while we wait.

"Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful." Hebrews 10:23

Lord, our hope in you doesn't waver based on our circumstances, but our hope is constant because of who you are. We declare your promises as true and we wait for them with hope because you will fulfill what you have spoken. We call forth those promises now in Jesus name.

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." Romans 12:12

Lord, thank you that we can rejoice in hope. We consider it a joy to wait on you and ask you to fill us up with hope and joy while waiting.

"Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us." Romans 5:3-5

Lord, we thank you that hope NEVER disappoints us. We declare encouragement from the hope that you and your word provides. We thank you that our sufferings help produce hope and refine us to be more like you.

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure." Hebrews 6:19

Lord, Thank you that the anchor to our soul is hope in you. Despite what is going on around us we declare that we will not be shaken, but will remain steady just as an anchor does while holding down a ship. We praise you for being our anchor during the storms.
